

Section 2.3: Formulas and Problem Solving

Vocabulary

- A formula is an equation that represents a general relationship between two or more quantities or measurements.

Solving for a variable is just like solving an equation with one unknown. When solving for a variable, treat all the other variables as constants.

Solve each equation for the specified variable.