

Example 7: Construct a truth table for $\sim p \rightarrow \sim q$ to determine when the statement is true and when the statement is false.

Example 8: Construct a truth table for $[(p \rightarrow q) \wedge \sim q] \rightarrow \sim p$ and show that the compound statement is a tautology.